INTERNATIONAL BENCHMARK TESTS (Australian Council for Educational Research- ACER)

We are pleased to inform you that your child's school has decided to participate in ACER's International Benchmark Tests (IBT).

About International Benchmark Tests

The International Benchmark Tests (IBT) developed by the Australian Council for Educational Research (ACER), is used to determine the position of students on their individual learning pathways so that teachers are able to guide them better and provide for education tailored to their specific requirements. Launched in 2005, the IBT is a curriculum independent high quality skill-based assessment in English, Mathematics, Science and Reasoning for students in school grades 3 to 10.

High quality skill-based assessment

Provides detailed diagnostic report

Certificate for each subject

Allows national and international comparison

Tracks learning progress within grades, across grades and over time

Why IBT?

- IBT helps to track student progress within grades, across grades and over time;
- It can compare student performance across schools, benchmarking them nationally and internationally;
- It provides a detailed report that shows student strengths and room for improvement;
- Awards different category of certificates depending on achievement.

About ACER

The Australian Council for Educational Research (ACER) is one of the world's leading educational research organisations. Since it was established in 1920, ACER has built a strong reputation as a provider of reliable support and expertise to education policy makers and professional practitioners worldwide. ACER is a not-for-profit, independent organisation that has been instrumental in the implementation, management and reporting of large-scale international surveys such as TIMSS, PISA, PIRLS and ICILS.

CHANDIGARH: Mount Carmel School, Sector 47-B, organised a workshop on 'aviation and flying' for the students of classes 11 and 12 on Saturday.

Students learnt about career opportunities in aviation. The one-hour workshop was conducted by Rev Ken Anderson, certified flight instructor and a pilot from Minnesota, USA. The session gave an overview of the aviation industry and workforce.

Students were apprised of the qualities and skills required to pursue aviation. They were urged to work on their command over English language, attitude and ability to understand technical information. The session concluded with a question-answer round. Students were informed about the upcoming 10-day pilot orientation programme.

The participants put their problem understanding of the subject while answering true-false stimulating questions posed in the lecture only. St. Eusebius Public School clinched the first prize while the second prize was bagged by Mount Carmel Convent and Carmel Convent School won the third prize.

Brilliant oratory and acting skills were showcased in costume court case enactment where Shivali Public

Principal Dr. Nilda Meléndez awarded the winners with trophies and certificates. She lauded the success of the family of the school for putting up such a brilliant pageant, and further added that such competitions help the students to look beyond the books and learn the transportation and application of the concepts in day to day life.
